No Travel Advisory lifted for central and western N.D.

The North Dakota Department of Transportation (NDDOT) has lifted the No Travel Advisory for the western and central regions of North Dakota. A No Travel Advisory remains for the eastern portion of North Dakota to include Grand Forks, Fargo, Jamestown, Wahpeton, Valley City and the surrounding areas.

N.D. Highway 200 between Pick City and U.S. Highway 83 is now open.

- N.D. Highway 11 is closed from the junction of N.D. Highway 127 east to the Minnesota border. For public safety, the road is closed because it is solid ice and there is water on both sides of the road.
- Interstate 94 between Dickinson and Mandan remains closed.

Motorists are cautioned to be alert to changing conditions and be aware of heavy drifts at structures and sheltered areas. Travelers are encouraged to monitor road conditions, reduce traffic speeds as weather conditions occur and use caution while traveling. For road information, call 511 from any type of phone or go to the website: www.511.nd.gov for road and weather conditions.

Please be advised that information on 511 is updated daily from 5 a.m. until 9 p.m. CST. The 511 road report is based upon the information available to the NDDOT at the time of preparation and is provided solely as a public service. Conditions may vary from those reported. If motorists become stranded they should stay with their vehicle and call 911 for emergency assistance.
